

Mrs. Simmi R. Nakra
Chief Vigilance Officer

Mrs. Simmi R. Nakra is the Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO) of Power Finance Corporation Limited. She is an officer of 1994 batch of IP&TAFS. She is Gold Medallist in M.Sc. (Chemistry) from Kurukshetra University. She holds M.Phil in Organic Chemistry from Punjab University, Chandigarh and M.Phil in Defence & Strategic Studies from University of Madras. She is an Alumna of the National Defence College, New Delhi and also MBA (Finance) from IGNOU.

Additionally, she holds the charge of CVO of PFCCL, Central Electricity Authority, POSOCO and Rural Electrification Corporation Ltd.

She has served the Govt. of India in various capacities for more than 29 years. She has earlier served in the Department of Telecommunications (DoT), Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT), Department of Posts and as the first CVO of Medical Council of India (MCI).

She has also served as Government Nominee Director on the Board of Telecommunications Consultants of India Ltd. (TCIL) & Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Limited (MTNL).

Ms. Nakra possesses rich experience in the areas of Procurement, Financial Advice, Internal Audit, Budgeting, Vigilance, Administration, Accounts and Policy making. She was instrumental in the development & implementation of the Direct Pension Disbursement mechanism to MTNL pensioners and customising the BHARATKOSH payment collection system in DoT. She was also instrumental in introducing E-Service Book Project in Government of India during her tenure in DoPT.

(A Maharatna Company)

POWER FINANCE CORPORATION LTD.

(A Govt. of India Undertaking)